16th Biennial Wake Forest University Argumentation Conference
Venice Conference: Argumentation Across Disciplines

Co-Sponsored by the International Society for the Study of Argumentation
Casa Artom, Venice, May 30-June 2, 2016

Monday, May 30:
4:00—8:00pm Opening Reception and Registration

Tuesday, May 31:
8:45—9:00am Welcoming Remarks, Conference Directors
Frans van Eemeren, International Society for the Study of Argumentation
Michael David Hazen, Wake Forest University
Alessandra von Burg, Wake Forest University
Ron von Burg, Wake Forest University
David Cratis Williams, Florida Atlantic University

9:00—9:45am “The Material Turn in Argumentation: Quaestio facti, Conjecture, and Hyper-Loci Laboratories, Workshops and Homes for Invention”
G. Thomas Goodnight
University of Southern California

9:45—10:30am “Fact Argumentation in Argumentation-based Litigation Game”
Minghui Xiong
Sun Yat-sen University

Break

10:45—11:30am “Establishing Validity: Argumentation in Child-Child Communication”
Kati Hannken-Illjes
Philipps-Universität Marburg
11:30—12:15 pm  “Multimodal Argumentation in Covers of Scientific Magazines: Using Futuristic Images to Appeal to the Audience and to Argue for the Societal Relevance of Nanotechnology”
Assimakis Tseronis
University of Amsterdam

Lunch (on your own)

2:30—3:15 pm  “Heuristics, Arguments, and Conversation”
Dale Hample
University of Maryland

3:15—4:00 pm  “The Role of Questions and Questioning in Argumentation”
Fernando Leal
University of Guadalajara

Break

4:15—5:00 pm  “Should Argumentation Skills be Part of Clinicians’ Communicative Competence? Challenges and Advantages of Combining Interdisciplinary Insights”
Sarah Bigi
Università Cattolica del Sacro Cuore

5:00—5:45 pm  “Stakeholder Dialogue as Deliberation for Policy Decision Making in Healthcare: The Approach from Argumentation Theory”
Sara Rubinelli
University of Luzern

Wednesday, June 1:

9:00—9:45 am  “Prototypical Argumentative Patterns”
Frans H. van Eemeren
International Society for the Study of Argumentation

9:45—10:30 am  “An Argumentative Approach to Dispute Mediators' Reframing”
Sara Greco
Università della Svizzera Italiana
Break

10:45—11:30am “Argumentation in a Political Press Conference Addressing a Critical Event: The Preconditions for Strategic Maneuvering”
Yeliz Demir
Hacettepe University

11:30—12:15pm “Strategically Maneuvering with Presentational Device in Corporate Social Responsibility Discourse about Communities”
Anca Gâță
Université "Dunărea de Jos" de Galați

Lunch (on your own)

2:30—3:15pm “Strategic Maneuvering with Presentational Choices in Dutch Parliamentary Debates”
Ton van Haaften
Universiteit Leiden

3:15—4:00pm “Presentational Strategies for Abductive Arguments”
Henrike Jansen
Universiteit Leiden

Break

4:15—5:00pm “Strategic Maneuvering Using a Fortiori Arguments”
Sandra Clemencia Valencia Martínez
University of Santiago de Compostela

5:00—5:45pm “Institutional Constraints on Dealing with Personal Attacks”
José Plug
Universiteit van Amsterdam

Thursday, June 2:

9:00—9:45am “Competition and Conflict between Communicative Norms”
Michael Hoppman
Northeastern University
9:45—10:30am  “On Argumentative Obligations”
Natalia Luna Luna
Autonomous University of Mexico City

Break

10:45—11:30am  "‘Bian（辯）’ in Mohist Canon and ‘Argumentation’"
Li Jidong
Nankai University

11:30—12:15pm  “Prime Minister Abe’s Challenge to the Japanese Postwar Constitution”
Hiroko Okuda, Kanto Gakuin University
Takeshi Suzuki, Meiji University

Lunch (on your own)

2:30—3:15pm  “Validating Extremism: Strategic Use of Authority Appeals in al-Naba’ Infographics”
Carol Winkler
Georgia State University

3:15—4:00pm  “What are the minimum requirements for the presence of argument?”
Michael Hazen
Wake Forest University

Break

4:15—6:00pm  Roundtable and Reception: Next Steps

8pm  Closing Dinner at Harry’s Dolci